Quintessential Hamptons Locale: The garden at Sant Ambroeus in Southampton. Enjoying their caprese salad, linguini alle vongole and a great bottle of wine is the perfect way to spend the day.

Latest Hot Spot: Moby's in Amagansett. They have a beautiful open space out back with a garden that I love to sit around with my friends. Favorite Beach: Georgica Beach. It's so quiet and serene, one of my favorite places in the world. What's in your beach bag? A pair of sunglasses, Clinique sunscreen and my Aerin Heart Raffia pouch. I also always have our Aerin Beach Cream and an oversize straw hat. I inherited my grandmother's collection—she had dozens! Go-to Vintage Shop: Neo Studio in Sag Harbor. Preferred Host Gift: We just launched a candle collection inspired by different travel destinations, and they have been the perfect gift ever since. Last Meal In The Hamptons: A grilled cheese sandwich and Oreo milkshake from Candy Kitchen.

CO-OWNER OF MATE GALLERY

Your Hamptons: I've been going out to Montauk since the late 1990s, so I'd have to say The End.

Favorite New Design Shop: Robert Stilin has an amazing studio tucked behind the Red Horse Market in East Hampton, with vintage finds and great design. On Your Summer Wish List: Anything from Lazy Point boutique in Amagansett. The owners, Claudja and Mark, really know how to merchandise a shop, and they have such great stuff. Artist On Your Radar: New York-based Kerry Irvine does abstract in a very approachable way that works in beach homes so well. Go-To Host Gift: My book, Lifeguard on Duty. Where can we find you at 5:00 p.m. on Friday? On the deck of my beach house, overlooking the ocean with a cocktail. What's in your beach bag? Coppertone and Yahtzee. Last Local Meal: The Crow's Nest, but they don't take reservations. I'd sit at the bar and order the blue crab claw tagliatelle. Hamptons' Best-Kept Secret: Definitely not telling.

CHIEF DESIGN OFFICER AT SERENA & LILY

Design Trends Out East: The Hamptons are always on point with its signature of colorful yet refined bohemian-chic décor. No one does it better. Go-To Shopping Destination: Sag Harbor is a hotbed for design goodness, and Ruby Beets is a must-visit every time I'm in town. The owners, Honey and Sharone, have such a keen eye. Recent Score: A killer surf bag from Pilgrim Surf + Supply in Amagansett. It's a smart collaboration they did with Baggu. What's in your beach bag? My beloved Mühlbauer sun hat and a Serena & Lily pareo. Preferred Host Gift: Our resin champagne bucket. Artist On Your Radar: I am captivated by Brooklyn-based Lucas Lai's photography; he astounds me. Quintessential Hamptons Spot: Our secret spot for dinner is the Old Stove Pub in Sagaponack. Where can we find you at 5:00 p.m. on Friday? Ideally gearing up for a bonfire with some oysters and rosé miraculously in front of me.
